

LIBRARY ACCESSIBILITY STUDY

MEASURING THE ACCESSIBILITY OF BCIT LIBRARY'S SPACE FOR PEOPLE WITH MOBILITY IMPAIRMENTS.

Volunteers Needed for Study

Who can participate?

- anyone dealing with a mobility impairment, temporary or ongoing

What can participants expect?

- About one hour of your time, going through the physical library space at BCIT Library, Burnaby Campus, with two librarian - researchers.
- Answering questions and completing typical library tasks (e.g., finding books etc.) to determine your access needs to library resources.
- Privacy: no identifying information will appear on any of the documents to come out of this study. This research conforms to BCIT's policies on privacy and research ethics.
- For sharing your time, we offer a $50 Amazon gift certificate.

To schedule a time to participate, or if you have any questions, please contact the librarian - researchers:

Tony O'Kelly: Tony_O'Kelly@bcit.ca ph. 604-432-8764

Jeff Verbeem: Jeffery_Verbeem@bcit.ca ph. 604 453-4042

British Columbia Institute of Technology Library, 3700 Willingdon Avenue,
Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada, V5G 3H2